WORTH'S GOOD RACING.

The most important race at Worth yesterday, a one mile and twenty yards dash for three-year-olds and upward, resulted in one of those stirring finishes that bring the grandstand occupants to their feet. In a spirited and exciting last sixteenth struggle Potheen just got up in time under a hard drive to nip Dan McKenna on the post. Rolling Boer finished third, four and a half lengths back.

To a good start Ahola, displaying much speed, shot to the front and while running down the backstretch opened up a gap of six lengths. In reaching the turn for home, however, she began to tire and Dan McKenna was soon at her throat latch. A furlong out the race appeared to be Dan McKenna's, but A. Hall, working hard on Potheen, gradually closed up on him and reached his saddle girths in the last fifty yards. Phillips had grown too confident on his mount, however, and allowed Potheen to get his nose in front when passing the judges' stand. Ahola was well spent just after entering the last quarter. Canyon ran well for six and a half furlongs.

The second race, a seven furlongs dash for four-year-olds and upward, was productive of keen disappointment to those that had pinned their faith on Meehanus. When the barrier went up Jaubert collided with Meehanus and by the time they had both gotten into their strides, both were practically out of the race. Herodiade, closely pressed by Tayon, showed in front for the first quarter, where the former gave way to Optional, which held a comfortable lead to the head of the stretch. Here O'Hagen and Tayon joined her, the three straightening for home on even terms. Just before reaching the last eighth post Tayon drew gradually away winning easily by one length from O'Hagen, which finished two and a half lengths before Optional for second place. O'Hagen was running fast at the end. Optional was thoroughly beaten when entering the final sixteenth. Meehanus and Jaubert were given easy rides after their jockeys saw they had no chance to be serious contenders.

Of the ten ordinary selling platers scheduled to start in the day's opening race, Fullback and Prodigal Son were absentees. The talent was equally divided in its choice between Miss Manners and Alfio, but neither reached the wire first, the winner turning up in Uranium, a rank outsider. As soon as the barrier went up he rushed to the front and opened up a gap of two and one-half lengths on Alfio, with Miss Manners third. Alfio closed up on Uranium just before turning for home, but the latter moved away in the final eighth, winning by half a length, Alfio finishing a nose before John J. Regan. The latter came with a rush in the last sixteenth, but Henry, on Alfio, would not be denied, keeping his mount in front to the wire.

Milkirk was conceded by the majority of those present to have the third race, a four-furlongs scramble for two-year-olds, at his mercy. He was made an even money favorite and certainly won as the odds indicated he should. Dominick got him off running and he tiptoed the field for the entire route, winning well in hand by three lengths from Elle, which beat Beneficent one length for second place. Beneficent ran in much improved form, and is worthy of attention from now on. Katie Powers ran well throughout.

Soldier of Fortune, which ran for the first time, showed a fair race, but swerved somewhat in the last sixteenth.

One of the biggest coups of the meeting came off in the fifth race, a dash once around the track for three-year-olds and upward. The winner turned up in Annie Thompson, heavily backed from 6 to 1 to 13 to 5. She was certainly much the best and had to be, as J. William, who rode her, put up anything but a good effort, riding her in and out all through the first half, and bungling when the head of the stretch had been reached. She won by a half length, going away from Prince Webb, which beat Branch a neck for second place.

The last race, with conditions and distance similar to the preceding, was won by Mi Reina, which beat Pyrrho one length, the latter finishing a half before Goldaga for second place.

A large crowd was present and witnessed a good day's racing. Betting was spirited and heavy. Harrowing the track made it a shade slower than on the preceding day.

Zonne, ridden by jockey Robbins, ran away one mile after the finish in the last race. In future such heavy headed horses as Zonne will have to be piloted by stronger boys than Robbins, who is still weak as a result of his Memphis accident.

The colors of G. W. Poole were seen yesterday for the first time in a long while. They were carried by the two-year-old Soldier of Fortune, which made a promising debut. Mr. Poole, until recently, was trainer for M. H. Tichenor & Co., and was succeeded by H. C. Riddle.

J. Touhey's Epicure, a frequent winner the past winter on the California tracks, will be shipped to Chicago shortly from the coast and will be prepared for the Harlem National Handicap.

The majority of owners regard Ed Corrigan's success in securing the services of J. Reiff as a master stroke and look to see the big owner an important factor in all the big races wherein he has nominations.

Milkirk reduced the four and a half furlongs mark from 55 seconds, made by his stable companion Sanctum, to 54½.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Barney Schreiber has bought what is known as the old Country Club property, adjoining his Woodland farm at Bridgeton. He gave $50,000 for the 150 acres. The place is a splendid one, in fine pasture, big trees, three nice houses, a grand old colonial residence, a polo field, tennis courts, etc. The St. Louis Country Club used the place before purchasing its new grounds at Clayton. Schreiber now owns three farms near Bridgeton. He has at least $150,000 in land, barring improvements and stock. The Dutchman also has a "crick in his neck," that is, a stiff neck due to staying up in the cold Friday night to watch a mare who was due to foal.—St. Louis Republic.

Speaking of the winter meeting in California, Secretary Hopper said recently: "In point of attendance it was the greatest meeting that the coast has seen in years. There was no perceptible decrease in the crowd at any time during the 147 days, barring, of course, the days of rain. It seemed to me that there were just as many people on the grounds the last day as there were on the first. The betting was good throughout the Winner—B. c. by The Commoner—Winsome III. (trained by W. Clay).

Went to post at 2:31. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second driving. Paris broke on the outside, went through his field with a rush, raced Sol Smith to subjection in the first quarter and drew away without much effort in the stretch run. Sol Smith was off running and showed superior speed, but tired. J. P. Mayberry got in a jam at the far turn and was cut off and knocked out of it, but closed up very fast when he got clear. Prince of Pilsen tired. Huckleberry Finn and Commodore ran green. Both are good lookers and are sure to be heard from.

Went to post at 2:59. At post 15 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Anglesea showed the most speed all the way, was never in trouble and had plenty in reserve at the finish. Red Hook was under a drive all through the last furlong to stall off Our Jessie. The latter stumbled when the start came, was on the outside all the way and came wide at the turn into the homestretch. Insoleance stumbled soon after the start and went to her knees. While going to the post Joe Buckley ran away two and a half miles, and Jane Oaker four miles.

Overweights—Tribesman, 3½ pounds.

Winner—Br. g. by Inspector B.—Iowa (trained by F. Gabriel).
Went to post at 3:41. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Invictus came through on the inside at the turn into the homestretch and was driving to the limit at the end to overcome Banana Cream. The latter ran a good race, but was used too much in setting the pace. Rampooza was outrun the first half, but came fast in the stretch. Rollock II. was in a pocket for the first five furlongs and was cut off a couple of times. Reiff finally pulled up at the far turn and went to the outside of his field, finished fast and would have won easily but for interference.

Scratched—38767 Locust Blossom, 104.

EASTERN TURF TALK.

Of things interesting to eastern patrons of racing the New York Sun of Tuesday says: "Before the races yesterday starter C. J. Fitzgerald was served with an injunction restraining him from using the starting gate known as the McGinnis barrier. The injunction was issued by a justice of the Supreme Court upon application of Patrick J. Ryan, who set forth that the McGinnis barrier was an infringement on his patent. The barrier, by the way, was patented by McGinnis first in 1897, with a renewal last December, and during the winter McGinnis paid a visit to England, where it is said he succeeded in having it introduced at a number of the British tracks. Ryan alleged yesterday that he invented the gate, and that at one time a royalty was paid him for the use of it.

"In view of the serving of papers Mr. Fitzgerald went temporarily into the judges' stand to assist Clarence McDowell, filling the place of C. H. Pettingill, who went to the post and used the barrier for the first three races. Then Ryan served the Metropolitan Jockey Club with another injunction, which made it impossible to use the barrier at all; so Mr. Pettingill was compelled to go back to the old recall flag system, Mr. Fitzgerald in the meantime leaving the track to consult with his attorneys.

"The starting with the recall flag incidentally served to illustrate vividly the merits of the no-recall system.

"In the fifth race, with only three starters, there was a delay of fifteen minutes at the post, Mr. Pettingill having instructed the jockeys not to break until he cried "come on." Again in the last race there were a couple of false breaks, in one of which Benella delayed matters by running away half a mile. The injunction proceedings will be argued in court next Monday, and in the meantime the starter will use a rubber band such as Mr. Cassidy employed at Aqueduct a year ago in place of the electrical device.

"The losses sustained by the layers last week resulted in the reduction of the number doing business in the ring yesterday by at least a dozen. The Pinkertons, acting upon numerous complaints against grandstand messengers who were accused of shaving the odds on bets placed with them by women, started a crusade yesterday, and it is said nearly two dozen of the so-called pirates were informed that they could do business no longer.

"When Flagstaff won the second race, H. F. Meyer, owner of Miss Nancy, which ran second, boosted the price of Flagstaff to $2,500. At that point Aste, who was red hot under the collar, bid $3,000 himself, whereupon Meyer turned away. Under the rules Meyer received $1,000, which reimbursed him for part of the heavy wager he placed upon Miss Nancy.

"Just before the running of the second race an owner appeared before paddock judge J. L. Hall and asked him if he could use ether on his horse's feet before starting him in a race today. Mr. Hall referred the matter to the stewards, who took it under consideration.

"Many superstitious bettors thought they saw a hunch in playing Injunction in the Montague Stakes because of the fact that an injunction prevented the use of the barrier."

Winner—Ch. c, by Huron—Honeymoon (trained by H. McDaniel).
Went to post at 3:30. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second handily. Milkirk, off well in his stride, showed a keen turn of speed and simply made the field appear cheap. Elie stood a long stretch drive well outgaming Beneficent in the deciding struggle. The latter showed improvement and bears watching from now on. Katie Powers ran a fairly good race. Soldier of Fortune swerved in the stretch, but showed a good race for a first start. The others were never serious contenders.
Scratched—38188 Manshak, 117.
Milkirk, show, out. Elie, show, 8 to 5. Beneficent, show, 1 to 2.

Time, 24, 48½, 1:14½, 1:40½, 1:42.
Winner—B. h, by Patton—Diana (trained by S. C. Hildreth).
Went to post at 4:00. Off at once to a good start. Won driving; second easily. Potheen, under a vigorous ride, gradually wore down Dan McKenna in the final sixteenth, just getting up in time to win on the post. Phillips on Dan McKenna grew overconfident in the final sixteenth and put up a somewhat weak finish. Rolling Boer finished going fast. Canyon tired fast in the final eighth. Ahola displayed much speed, but maintained it for only a little over seven furlongs. She carried Dan McKenna very wide at the first turn.
Overweights—Dan McKenna, 3 pounds.

Went to post at 4:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Annie Thompson was much the best today. She was ridden in and out in the first quarter and given anything but a good ride, but closed up fast in the final sixteenth and won going away. Prince Webb appeared the winner when a sixteenth from home, but tired fast in the closing strides. Branch finished going fast. Gracious was well beaten when opposite the paddock. Limelight ran well for six furlongs. Harry Beck ran a dull race and can do much better.

Winner—B. f, by King Regent—Night Shade (trained by U. Z. DeArman).
Went to post at 2:31. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second easily. Luna Minor was well rated, saved all ground possible and finished well, but was lucky to stall off Margie S. The latter came fast through the stretch and would have won but for swerving at the finish. Dr. Carrick ran a good race, but was a bit short and tired. Immortelle did not take kindly to the slow going. Patronymic's race was a very bad one. First One also ran below his recent form.

Went to post at 3:11. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Old Stone is evidently a good colt. He easily galloped past his field in the stretch and won with speed in reserve. LOUISVILLE FORM CHART-CONTINUED.

turn, ran around the leaders at the turn into the homestretch and put up a fast and game stretch run. Harry New had a rough trip, finished next to the inside rail and was bumped into and crowded against the fence several times by Airlight. The latter ran a good race, but Helgesen's finish on her was a weak one and he seemed unable to keep the filly straight. Hargis ran poorly. Sinner Simon and Woodlake were tiring at the end. Golden Wishes looked very big and the race should improve him.

Scratched—38655*Jack Rattlin, 112; 36105 Incubator, 102.
Overweights—Airlight, 2½ pounds; Golden Wishes, 2.

Went to post at 4:42. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. The race was a procession for the entire trip. Stumpy showed much the most speed all the way, was never in trouble and had plenty in reserve at the end. Phelan ran his race and was easily the best of the others. Crowhurst did not persevere with Onita when he saw he had no chance. Throw Comora's race out. Castro turned her head loose in the stretch run. Silver Thistle finished well.

Went to post at 5:12. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won pulled up; second driving. Bensonhurst made a show of his company, opened up a winning lead in the first furlong and was never closely approached. Premium ran well, but was under a drive all the last furlong to stall off The Bronze Demon. The latter finished fast and outgamed Suburban Queen and would have been second in two more strides. Phil Escher swerved to the outside in the stretch run after showing early speed. Miriam W. was pulled up at the start and made up a lot of ground, but tired in the last sixteenth.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good for all but I Know. Won driving; second the same. Right and True closed up with a rush on the stretch turn and easily went to the front, but was tiring at the end and doing his best. Squanto closed up gamely in the final furlong under a hustling ride and finished fast. Minotaur was interfered with on the turn and was in a pocket and could not get out in time, but closed fast at the end. Morokanta ran a good race and tired from making the pace, but hung on gamely at the end. Carroll D. ran a good race for over a half mile. Roue was eased up when beaten.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Collector Jessup was much the best and was eased up at the end. His last race just fitted him and he only cantered all the way and can beat better company. Jim Kelly got off well and ran a good race, but had no chance with the winner at the weights. Pal Roger finished well and outlasted Zeller in a hard drive. Sailor Lad began slowly and showed scant speed.

Winner—B. c. by Ben Strome—May Howard (trained by W. B. Freeman).
Went to post at 3:30. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second the same. Ben Howard has improved wonderfully in his last few races since he changed hands. He broke well in motion and raced gamely with Schoharie all the way, had to be hard ridden to wear him down and was all out at the finish. Schoharie was in light and forced a fast pace, but could not quite last. Locket would probably have won with an intelligent ride. Walsh waited too long and could not get up at the end, but Locket made up several lengths in the final furlong and was going fastest at the end. Illyria was none too vigorously handled. Duelist was overweighted. Ella Snyder ran poorly. Young Henry got off poorly, but his race was too bad to be a true one.
Scratched—(38671)Blue and Orange, 100.
Overweights—Schoharie, 3 pounds.

Winner—Br. c. by Lord Hartington—Mary Greenwood (trained by A. Zimmer).
Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won driving; second the same. Setauket is fit and good and had a big pull in the weights. In a good position throughout, he caught and beat Examiner a furlong from home, but was doing his best at the end to stave off Embarrassment. The latter saved ground on the stretch turn and came fast next to the rail at the end and would have won had he got through in time. Tribes Hill seemed dangerous when a sixteenth from home, but tired in the final drive. His weight was too much for Examiner and he tired in the final furlong, but held on gamely. Colonsay is worth remembering in slower company. Dark Planet ran well for six furlongs. Colonist was standing still when the barrier went up and was practically left. Gaviota ran poorly.
Corrected weights—Gaviota, 89.
Overweights—Examiner, 1 pound; Dark Planet, 4.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second the same. Prince of Arragon acted like a wild horse while on the way to the post. He began slowly, but went through the field fast on the backstretch, raced with Sontag all the way and outgamed him in the stretch run. Sontag ran a good race and would have won with a stronger finish. Mennenfield ran a fair race. Spring Silk made up a lot of ground. Snowdrift did not run to expectations. Rosewater ran a poor race and can do better.
